

WEDNESDAY 20 September 2023 – Translating Europe Workshop

8.00 – 9.00	Atrium	Registration
9.00 – 9.30	Moyzes Hall	Opening of the conference – Introductory speeches 🗣️ 📢 Jozef Tancer – Vice-rector of the University Marián Zouhar – Dean of the Faculty Mária Kusá – Slovak Academy of Sciences Jozef Štefánik – European Commission, DG-T Pavol Šveda – Organisation Committee
9.30 – 10.30	Moyzes Hall	Keynote speech by Anthony Pym: Empiricism as a response to generalized uncertainty 🗣️ 📢 Chair: Martin Djovčoš
10.30 – 11.00	Atrium	Coffee break

11.00 – 12.30 Moyzes Hall 🗣️ 📢	11.00 – 12.30 Room 243	11.00 – 12.30 Room 140
Session 1: AI and Translation Market Chair: Barbara Heinisch	Session 2: Translator and interpreter training in post-pandemic world 1 Chair: Marián Kabát	Session 3: Historical justice in narrating translation histories 1 Chair: Oleksandr Kalnychenko
Machine Translation: A talent grinder? – João Brogueira	Effects of on-line education on interpreting courses: challenges, downsides and opportunities – Gözde Begüm Aküzüm	Hybridity in Texts the English Translation of a Sudanese Postcolonial Novel: Seasons of Migration to the North – Nawal Sulaiman Alfozan
Translation Think Tanks: Techno-triumphalists or Market Disciples? – Stefan Baumgarten	What should a Polish video game localization course (not) include? – Dominik Kudła	Literary bilingualism and its translation as activism: Towards Ukrainian translations of new Russian anti-war literature – Natalia Kamovnikova
The Use and Perception of AI-powered Information Technologies in Translation Practice: Results of a Survey – Lucia Tonková	The didactics of Japanese language translation and interpreting in Poland: the needs, the present, and the future – Agata Balińska	A Bridge through Time: Retranslating 19th Century Classics – Barbora Vinczeová

12.30 – 13.30	Atrium	Lunch break
13.30 – 15.00	Moyzes Hall	Panel discussion: Translation 2.0: Unlocking the Power of Upskilling for Translators 🗣️ 📢 Panelists: Jozef Štefánik, David Orrego-Carmona, Veronika Fraňová, Giada Gerotto Host: Emília Perez
15.15 - 16.00	Room 243	Presentation and discussion: Integration of Ukrainian into eTranslation 🗣️ 📢 Speaker: Agnes Farkas (European Commission: DG-T)
16.00 – 16.30	Atrium	Coffee break

WEDNESDAY 20 September 2023 – Translating Europe Workshop

16.30 – 18.00 Room 243	16.30 – 18.00 Room 140	16.30 – 18.00 Room 110
Session 4: Historical justice in narrating translation histories 2 Chair: Daniele Monticelli	Session 5: Translation and interpreting building borders and bridges Chair: Marianna Bachledová	Session 6: Translator and interpreter training in post-pandemic world 2 Chair: Emília Perez
Changing a translation method and erasing translation theory in Ukraine in the 1930s - Oleksandr Kalnychenko	Why translation matters – in English-speaking countries, too! – Giuseppe Palumbo	Investigating the Attitudes of LSPs and Translators towards AI and Machine Translation: Implications for CAT Education – Ivo Poláček
Translated but isolated: a case study of the reception of Estonian-Russian translations of two Estonian authors in Russia and Estonia – Irina Siseykina	What happens on the bridge? Itineraries on the Tower Bridge of Translation in the Shifting Geopolitics of Europe – Iryna Odrekhivska	Translation and post-editing performance of novice translation students – Márta Lesznyák, Eszter Sermann and Mária Bakti
On the adaptation of Exodus by an Anglo-Saxon poet – Martin Kubuš	Translating Beyond Words: Decoding the Enigma of Lithuanian Realia to English-speaking Audiences – Jurgita Motiejūnienė and Kamilė Mončytė	The development of interpreting competence. Results from four longitudinal case studies – Mária Bakti
18.00 – 20.00	Atrium	Evening drink with refreshment – hosted by the European Commission – DG-T

Supported by:

PRELIMINARY VERSION – SUBJECT TO CHANGE!

THURSDAY 21 September 2023

9.00 – 10.00	Moyzes Hall	Keynote speech by David Orrego-Carmona: Can translation be a factor involuntarily deepening divides? 🗣️ Chair: Emília Perez
10.00 – 10.30	Atrium	Coffee break

10.30 – 12.00 Moyzes Hall 🗣️	10.30 – 12.00 Room G11	10.30 – 12.00 Room 140	10.30 – 12.00 Room 243
Session 7: Political motivation for setting initial norm in translation Chair: Iryna Odrekhyivska	Session 8: Translators' visibility and social representation Chair: Ivana Hostová	Session 9: Virality – opportunity and challenge for T&I world 1 Chair: Martin Djovčoš	Dutch Section Session 1 Chair: Markéta Štefková
Individual Decisions under Collectivist Ideology: the Czech Translation of Yiddish Literature in Postwar Czechoslovakia – Marie Krappmann	Visibility and Virality: Translation in the Influencer and Creator Economies – Renée Desjardins	“Finnish people are abysmally stupid and naive” – Ideologies of translation in online discussions about public service interpreting – Simo K. Määttä	Elementen van vertaalcompetenties en ambiguïteit bij het vertalen met speciale aandacht aan jeugdliteratuur – Orsolya Varga
Power, manipulation and translator intervention: Translating intercultural interactions in the Netflix-branded film American Factory – Bei Hu	Translator's Visibility in (Post)soviet Ukraine and Russia: accountability to the regime vs social responsibility – Nataliia Rudnytska	Social Representations of José Saramago's Ensaio Sobre a Cegueira, Körlük, in Turkey – Imren Gokce Vaz de Carvalho	Wie de jeugd heeft, heeft de toekomst? – Verleden, heden en toekomst van het beroep van beëdigd tolk/vertaler Nederlands in Polen – Erik Jan Kuipers
Translation as a Scientific Dialogue – Katarína Bednárová	Translator's Presence/Visibility in Translated and Retranslated Arabic Fictional Narrative. The Case of Naguib Mahfouz's Midaq Alley – Mehemed Tarhuni	Whose Truth Is It? Expertise, lived experience and translation practice – Mary Wardle	Cognitieve, comparatieve analyse van Poolse en Nederlandse vaste verbindingen met de emotie 'vreugde' – Muriel Waterlot
Censorship in Translation as a Tool of Ideological Propaganda in Reception of Anglophone Literatures in Slovakia in the Post-war Socialist Period (1945-1989) – Marián Gazdík	Economic activity of literary translation editors in Slovakia – Matej Martinkovič	Interpreting in a New Era: Exploring Interpreter Trainer Perceptions of Automation – Özge Özer	Wat is dit voor gekrabbel? -- Aantekeningen maken in consecutief tolken – Franciska van Waarden and Réka Eszenyi

12.00 – 13.00	Atrium	Lunch break
13.00 – 13.30	Moyzes Hall	Presentation of the book: Translation studies in Ukraine as an integral part of the European context

THURSDAY 21 September 2023

12.00 – 13.30	Atrium	Lunch break
13.30 – 15.00	Moyzes Hall	Panel Discussion: Breaking out of isolation 🗨️ Panelists: Anthony Pym, Daniele Monticelli, Oleksandr Kalnychenko, Martin Djovčoš Host: Ivana Hostová
15.00 – 15.30	Atrium	Coffee break

15.30 – 17.00 Room 243	15.30 – 17.00 Room G140	15.30 – 17.00 Room G110	16.30 – 20.00
Session 10: Virality – opportunity and challenge for translating and interpreting world 2 Chair: Barbora Vinczeová	Session 11: Language hostility and hospitality as a factor in integration of refugees in new societies 1 Chair: Soňa Hodáková	Session 12: Negotiating translation/interpreting zones Chair: Leonid Chernovaty	Dutch Section: Introductory speech Terminology workshop Chair: Krisztina Soós
A Sociological Approach to Intersemiotic Translation: The Example of ‘Old-Stock Istanbul Families and Family Archives’ Facebook Group – Bülent Erdoğan	The social responsibility of community interpreters in humanitarian contexts as perceived by refugees, public authorities, NGOs and interpreters themselves – Barbara Heinisch	‘Royal English’ as a translation problem for kingless nations – Taras Shmiher	16.30-18.00 Terminology workshops in groups per language combination
Artificial Intelligence, Machine Translation & Cyborg Translators: A Clash of Utopian and Dystopian Visions – Klaudia Bednárová-Gibová, Edina Robin and Réka Eszenyi	Language Host-ages: Rebuilding a Society Through Interpreting – Rabia Odabasi and Rana Kahraman Duru	Fifty-Seven Facets of a Translator: Translator Competence Development From a Post-Structuralist Perspective – Karolina Levanaitė	18.00 – 19.00 Celebratory introduction of networks NVVT and PETRA NED
Paratexts as the threshold and narrative location of digital feminism via translation in China – Xiaoyi Cheng	Involvement and relevance from the perspective of interpreting in religious context – Piroska Szentirmay	Harmonizing terminology for English and Ukrainian secondary education – Kateryna Bondarenko	20.00 Dinner Dutch Session

17:00 – 18.00	Room 243	Homage to Ján Vilikovský – Chair: Ľubica Pliešovská Prínos Jána Vilikovského do slovenskej teórie prekladu – Anita Huťková Shakespeare v nás – Katarína Bednárová
18.00 – 20.00	Old Town	Charming and entertaining guided tour of Bratislava Old Town with Martina
20.30 – 22.00	Old Town	Social dinner (optional – more information at a later stage, registration necessary)

FRIDAY 22 September 2023

8.00 – 9.00	Room 110	Workshop with Jonathan Downie: AI and the Future of Interpreting Research (registration necessary, fee EUR 35)
9.00 – 10.00	Moyzes Hall	Keynote speech – Paola Gentile: Rethinking University Curricula in Translation and Interpreting: Insights from Alumni Surveys 🗣️ Chair: Pavol Šveda
10.00 – 10.30	Atrium	Coffee break
10.30 – 12.00 Moyzes Hall 🗣️
10.30 – 12.00 Room G243
10.30 – 12.00 Room G140
10.30 – 12.00 Room G11
Session 13: Interpreter training in post-pandemic world Chair: Pavol Šveda		Session 14: Access and inclusion – communication designs for all Chair: Emilia Perez		Dutch Section: Session Session 2: Chair: Markéta Štefková
Online interpreting classroom: our salvation or our doom? – Michaela Trlifajová	Theatrical Performances and Their Accessibility in Slovakia: Insights from the Deaf Community Representatives – Eva Verebová and Emília Perez	Should I filter out the speakers' manner of speech during court proceedings? Interpreters' social responsibility in remote settings – Ran Yi	Vertalingen door mens of machine? Vertaalproblemen en -oplossingen van Tsjechische en Slowaakse studenten tijdens de DCC Summer School – Marta Kostelecká
Students versus professionals: How effective is interpreter training? – Miroslava Melicherčíková	Building Bridges between Cultures: Accessible Multimodal Subtitles – Greta Danilavičienė and Jurgita Motiejūnienė	Translation and interpreting in mental health services: challenges and barriers in migrants' access to mental healthcare in Slovakia – Soňa Hodáková	Profiel van vertalers en tolken Nederlands NEM Verslag van veldonderzoek – Pavlína Knap-Dlouhá, Lucia Polachová
(Re)constructing common ground? Interlingual and intralingual interpreting for communicative access and inclusion – Maria Bernadette Zwischenberger, Judith Platter and Katia Iacono	Taboo Language and Slovak Dubbing: How Euphoria changed the game – Mária Koscelníková and Jana Ukušová	Here I am human, here I can be free! Neutralizations in translation revisited – Zuzana Bohušová and Jörn Nuber	Hulp, middel of hulpmiddel? Werken met / het werk van een tolk. Beschouwingen van juridische experts en deskundigen inzake kindbescherming; evaluatie van de samenwerking met een tolk – Zsuzsanna Lénárt
The phenomenon of "cross-interpreting" in Slovakia and abroad in the wake of changing demands on the interpreter and the interpreting market – Jaroslav Stahl			Strategisch management van sociaal tolken in Slowakije – Michaela Zárecká

Translation, Interpreting & Culture 2023: Virality and Isolation in the Era of Deepening Divides

Bratislava, 20 – 22 September 2023

www.tic-conference.eu

12.00 – 13.00	Atrium	Lunch break
13.00 – 14.30	Moyzes Hall	Panel discussion: New Frontiers of Interpreting 🗣️ Panelists: Paola Gentile, Jonathan Downie, Helena Tužinská Host: Pavol Šveda
14.30 – 15.00	Moyzes Hall	Concluding remarks by conference organizers

The organisers also wish to thank the European Commission – Directorate-General for Translation for their support and financial contribution within the Translating Europe Workshop scheme.

The conference was kindly supported from following projects:

VEGA 2/0092/23 Translation and Translating as a Part of the Slovak Cultural Space History and Present. Transformations of Form, Status and Functions: Texts, Personages, Institutions.

VEGA 1/0202/21: Reflexia kognitívnych a osobnostných charakteristík v tlmočnickom výkone študentov PaT a profesionálov v reálnom a virtuálnom prostredí (Reflection of Cognitive and Personality Traits in the Interpreting Performance of T&I Students and Professionals in Real and Virtual Environment).

VEGA 2/0009/23 Kreativne experimenty s textom v perspektíve kritického posthumanizmu: básnická, umelecká a prekladová prax v slovenskej kultúre v medzinárodných súvislostiach/Creative Experiments with Text from the Perspective of Critical Posthumanism: Poetic, Artistic and Translation

Supported by:

PRELIMINARY VERSION – SUBJECT TO CHANGE!